

Staff News

Thankyou to all those who applied for our recently advertised position vacant, Handyman. The position has now been filled and we would like to welcome

Richard Green to our staff this month.

We are introducing a new staff member to the grocery department this month, Cathy Barden. We wish Cathy all the best for a successful time at the Co-op and hope our customers & shareholders are able to meet her in the near future.

Produce

NEW!! Vigilanti Granular Insecticide. Vigilanti is an easy way to control certain pests in turf including ants, fleas and ticks in external environments. See the produce for a full rundown on this new exciting product.

Out they go!! Brigalow Country clothing in stock is now reduced to clear. Limited styles and sizes available. Blue Mountain winter horse rugs are still on special at a low price of $72.95 along with Weatherbeeta & Thermomaster dog coats to keep your best friend warm this winter, all sizes in stock starting at $27.50.

We are currently grading wheat & barley, if you would like private grading done please do not hesitate to call. Lucerne & pasture seed are still in good supply if required.

Don't forget to check out the great prizes under the Christmas tree, as part of Castrol's Christmas in June promotion. For more details see the enclosed flyer.

Layby

Did you know that all departments of the Co-op offer layby facilities? This a great way to pay off large purchases, and may be useful to you as we approach yet another Christmas. Please speak to any staff member to arrange to have your special item put aside. Minimum 10% deposit is required.

Biggest Morning Tea

Thankyou to all those who supported the Biggest Morning Tea in aid of the Cancer Council. A total of $361-10 was raised. Winner of the fruit tray was Kay Hatfield. A special thankyou to Kaye Nicholls for coordinating the event and all those who donated goodies.

Betta Electrical

Market Day WIN BACK THE VALUE OF YOUR GROCERIES :

- Bev Jensen

The supermarket is constantly looking for ways to accommodate your needs. Due to an increase in demand for Gluten Free products, we have created a section containing our gluten free range including several new products. If you require an item that we do not stock please see our friendly staff who would be happy to source it for you.

Sponsored Events

Killarney Co-op has been proud to sponsor the following events:

- Catholic Church
- Killarney Polocrosse
- Australia's Biggest Morning Tea
- KMAC
- Woodenbong Campdraft

Please remember that all requests for donations and sponsorships must be made in writing to the Board of Directors.

Shareholders

Please ensure that your contact details are correct on our share-register as we will soon be sending out annual reports. If you have not yet provided your TFN or ABN please contact the office or bank.

Shoe Shop

We have a range of men's , ladies and children's slippers available to warm you up through the winter. Come on in to the Shoe Shop and see our very affordable products. 5% cash discount available to shareholders!

Service Station

Everybody likes a bit of flattery, as long as it isn't in your battery. So perk up your cars disposition, and let the Servo get your ignition switching.

We have batteries to suit most vehicles and our prices will appeal to all budgets.

Purchase a Century battery before the end of June & go into the draw to WIN $100 000, see instore for more details.

Ticket Selling

Requirements

Killarney Co-op are happy to support organisations by allowing raffle ticket sellers at the front of the store. Groups are reminded that this arrangement is for tickets only, and no merchandise may be sold in conjunction. To make bookings please speak to the office staff.

Primary Producers

Please see us now to make your bulk purchases before the end of the financial year.
