Election of Directors

Directors due to retire through effluxion of time were Andrew David Peterson, Kenneth Cyril William Mogridge and Bruce James Wickham all of whom were eligible for re-election. Andrew David Peterson and Bruce James Wickham offered themselves accordingly.

The only nomination received in addition to the above was from David John Weier. Therefore Andrew Peterson, Bruce Wickham & David Weier will join our two sitting directors Kay Hancock & Rod Petersen on the board.

The positions of Chairman & Deputy Chairman will be voted at the Directors meeting on Thursday 30th October 2008.

Staff News

We welcome Andrew Green on staff in the Hardware department on a casual basis.

We recently took part in the Killarney State School Work Experience program. Year 10 student Emily Power spent the week with us 'experiencing work'.

We thank Emily for her professional attitude, and hope that she was able to learn something from her time with us.

Daylight Savings

Daylight savings started in New South Wales on the 5th of October. We would like to remind our NSW customers that Killarney Co-op operates on Queensland time.

Produce

Due to the high number of rodents, all grain farmers should check their Wheat & Barley crops for mice damage. Aerial bating is available, please contact the produce department. Thankyou to all those who returned Chep pallets & 1 tonne bags last month, there is still quite a few which need to be returned at your earliest convenience.

Shoe Shop

Step out this spring in a new pair of double pluggers or Dunlop fashion thongs. See our selection instore.
